ATLANTA, Ga.— Embassy Suites by Hilton, a global brand of all-suite hotels from Hilton, announced the opening of a newly-built hotel in the growing Sugarloaf suburb of Duluth in Atlanta, Ga. Owned and operated by Kana Hotel Group, the hotel is situated to allow guests access to businesses, shopping, and entertainment. Embassy Suites by Hilton prides itself on offering guests an approachable and stress-free experience at each of its all-suites hotel properties.

Embassy Suites by Hilton Atlanta NE Gwinnett Sugarloaf is just steps from the Infinite Energy Center. The hotel has 166 suites consisting of traditional two-room suites and new junior suites. It features a lobby, bar area, as well as a restaurant, The E'terie. The restaurant serves Southern-style cuisine for breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

The Embassy Suites by Hilton Atlanta NE Gwinnett Sugarloaf welcomes guests to enjoy its two-room suites where travelers can enjoy a free cooked-to-order breakfast each morning, free Wi-Fi, and complimentary drinks and snacks each night. Embassy Suites by Hilton provides customer service that anticipates travelers' needs.

"The Embassy Suites by Hilton Atlanta NE Gwinnett Sugarloaf property embodies the modern and inviting atmosphere Embassy Suites by Hilton is known for," said Alan Roberts, global head, Embassy Suites by Hilton. "It's the perfect addition to our award-winning brand of upscale all-suite hotels."

In addition to Embassy Suites by Hilton's traditional amenities, this property also includes a 5,016 square foot meeting space, ballroom with three built-in projection screens, five meeting spaces and a 24-hour business center. The property is five miles from three wedding venues with shuttle services provided to guests.

"We are excited for guests to come experience all that our property has to offer," said Richard Welch, general manager, Embassy Suites by Hilton Atlanta NE Gwinnett Sugarloaf. "Embassy Suites by Hilton's variety of amenities puts any traveler at ease and the proximity to Infinite Energy Center, University of Georgia, corporate headquarters and award-winning recreational parks make this location that much more attractive."
