CHARLOTTE, NC—Embassy Suites by Hilton Charlotte Uptown has opened here.

The new-build hotel, owned by BPR CMC Charlotte LLC and developed by BPR Properties, has 250 suites that include open living areas, kitchenettes, complimentary WiFi, 42-in. HDTVs and ergonomic workspaces in each room.

Amenities include a free, cooked-to-order breakfast each morning and complimentary drinks and snacks each night. In addition to Embassy Suites by Hilton's traditional amenities, this property also features a custom-made fireplace in the lobby, a Meck Dec Terrace and the QC Lounge. The Suki Akor Asian Fusion restaurant serves fresh grilled meats, fish and vegetables and freshly made sushi in an upscale environment. The hotel has up to 12,000 sq. ft. of event space and includes multiple meeting rooms for guests.

The hotel is located in the financial and arts center of Uptown Charlotte close to the Charlotte Convention Center and seven miles from the airport.
