Charlotte, N.C.—Embassy Suites by Hilton has opened the Embassy Suites by Hilton Charlotte Uptown, located at 301 East MLK Blvd. The hotel is owned by BPR CMC Charlotte LLC and was developed by BPR Properties.

The 250-key hotel offers free Wi-Fi, on-site food and beverage options, 12,000 square feet of event and meeting space, outdoor terrace, a business center, 24-hour pantry market, laundry services, fitness center and pool. The hotel also features convenient access to the Charlotte Convention Center and is seven miles from the airport.

“We are eager for guests to experience the variety of amenities that this property has to offer,” said Ron Feeney, general manager, Embassy Suites by Hilton Charlotte Uptown, in prepared remarks. “Embassy Suites by Hilton’s inviting atmosphere will put any traveler at ease and the accessibility to the EpiCentre shops, restaurants and nightlife and the Lynx Light Rail make this location that much more appealing.”
