Undoubtedly, most of Greenville's best nightlife is centered in downtown Greenville, but it no longer rings true that Main Street is the only place to go. In this ever-expanding city, which consistently appears on "best" lists, the nightlife options are quickly becoming endless.

With the Village of West Greenville on the rise – anchored by the legendary Dr. Mac Arnold's Blues Restaurant – and breweries and taprooms cropping up all over, you'll find that nightlife is quite varied, offering plenty of ways to spend a fun evening out.

From theater performances and concerts, to bars and brewpubs, you're sure to find something you're interested in. Not to mention, Greenville boasts a growing comedy scene, so you're guaranteed some laughs as well.

UP on the Roof is the most popular gathering spot in Greenville, with its handcrafted cocktails, fresh fare and stunning views from its fantastic rooftop location. This al fresco bar at the top of Embassy Suites offers local beer on tap, a healthy selection of wine and a unique cocktail menu that includes bottled beverages like the popular It's Strawberry Thyme, a combination of gin, cointreau, muddles strawberries, fresh thyme and lemon sour. Bar snacks are also on hand, in the form of tasty Southern small bites as well as more substantial dishes like the Rooftop Burger. And if you have a sweet tooth, pay close attention to the Sunset Sweets section of the menu. The views alone make UP on the Roof a necessary stop in Greenville.
